

Witness statement

I saw the blue van reverse into the parked car outside the bakery at about nine in the morning. The driver stopped and exchanged details.